If you own income-producing property, you must file a Real Property Income and Expense (RPIE) statement or a claim of exclusion unless you are exempt by law. You must also file information about any ground or second floor commercial units on the premises, even if you are exempt from filing an RPIE statement. The deadline to file is July 1, 2020. RPIE filers whose properties have an actual assessed value of $750,000 or greater will be required to file an addendum containing rent roll information. The deadline to file this addendum is September 1, 2020. Failure to file will result in penalties and interest, which will become a lien on your property if they go unpaid. Visit www.nyc.gov/rpie for more information.

Re: Your corrected property tax bill is enclosed

Dear Property Owner or Agent,

We are writing to inform you that the New York City Department of Finance has corrected an error on your property tax bill due July 1, 2020.

You may have noticed that your bill was higher than usual. The reason for this is that you were issued a semi-annual rather than a quarterly bill. We apologize for this error and any confusion or inconvenience it may have caused you.

Enclosed please find a revised bill with the correct amount that you owe. This amount reflects any payments that you have already made. You can pay your bill online at www.nyc.gov/citypay, or follow the instructions on the bill to submit your payment by mail.

Thank you in advance for your timely payment. If you have questions about this letter, please contact the Department of Finance via our online customer service portal, www.nyc.gov/dofaccount.

Sincerely,
