NEW LAW: To learn about Local Law 147, which requires residential buildings with three or more units to create a policy on smoking and share it with current and prospective tenants, visit www.nyc.gov/health/tobaccocontrol.

If you own income-producing property, you must file a Real Property Income and Expense (RPIE) statement or a claim of exclusion unless you are exempt by law. You must also file information about any ground or second floor commercial units on the premises, even if you are exempt from filing an RPIE statement. The deadline to file is July 1, 2020. RPIE filers whose properties have an actual assessed value of $750,000 or greater will be required to file an addendum containing rent roll information. The deadline to file this addendum is September 1, 2020. Failure to file will result in penalties and interest, which will become a lien on your property if they go unpaid. Visit www.nyc.gov/rpie for more information.

"The NYC Health Department would like to remind property owners that they must remove standing water, as mosquitos can breed in warm weather. For more information, please visit nyc.gov/health or call 311

Under New York City Housing Maintenance Code Article 4, Subchapter 2, the HPD-Property Registration Fee must be paid and the appropriate form must additionally be submitted to the Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) in order to complete the required annual property registration for this property and have the building validly registered with HPD. For more information about registering your property with HPD, you may access the website <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/owners/compliance-register-your-property.page> or contact HPD's Registration Assistance Unit via email to: register@hpd.nyc.gov or by calling 212-863-7000.

One City Built to Last, Compliance Notification

Local Law 33/18 - Disclosure of Energy Efficiency Scores and Grades

This property may be required to post an energy efficiency grade near each public entrance to the building. The energy efficiency grade must be displayed within 30 days after it is made available to the owner by the NYC Dept. of Buildings.

For information on Local Law 33, please visit <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/buildings/business/benchmarking.page>

For free assistance and answers to your questions regarding the local laws listed above, please email the NYC Sustainability Help Center at Help@NYCsustainability.org or call (212) 566-5584.

Re: Your corrected property tax bill is enclosed

Dear Property Owner or Agent,

We are writing to inform you that the New York City Department of Finance has corrected an error on your property tax bill due July 1, 2020.

You may have noticed that your bill was higher than usual. The reason for this is that you were issued a semi-annual rather than a quarterly bill. We apologize for this error and any confusion or inconvenience it may have caused you.

Enclosed please find a revised bill with the correct amount that you owe. This amount reflects any payments that you have already made. You can pay your bill online at www.nyc.gov/citypay, or follow the instructions on the bill to submit your payment by mail.

Thank you in advance for your timely payment. If you have questions about this letter, please contact the Department of Finance via our online customer service portal, www.nyc.gov/dofaccount.

Sincerely,

The Treasury and Payment Services Division
New York City Department of Finance
